A. FILL IN THE BLANKS, CHOOSING THE APPROPRIATE FORM OF THE VERB FROM THOSE SUGGESTED.

1. I saw Ghita at the cinema a week ago. saw / have seen / see / will see
2. Tarik has got a Volvo. He has had it since last year. has / had / has had / had had
3. We will go to the beach tomorrow if the weather is fine. go / went / will go / would go
4. It's 11 a.m. I have done four exercises this morning. have done / did / had done / was doing
5. He will be sixteen next Monday. is / would be / will be / was
6. I would help you if I had time. would have helped / would help / shall help / helped
7. While they were walking through the park yesterday, they met their neighbours. walked / had walked / were walking / have walked
8. He wishes he had seen the match last Saturday. saw / had seen / has seen / would have seen
9. Bilal isn't here. He has gone to the post office. had gone / has gone / goes / has been going
10. If the weather had been fine last Sunday, we would have gone to the beach. would have gone / went / would go / will go
11. We all know that wood floats on water. is floating / floated / float / floats
12. My aunt works in Fes. She has worked there since 2015. works / had worked / worked / has worked
13. Listen! I think it is raining. rains / is raining / had rained / had been raining
14. We'll put the music on as soon as the guests arrive. arrive / will arrive / arrived / would arrive
15. I don't know where Omar is. I have been waiting for him for nearly an hour. had been waiting / am waiting / have been waiting / wait

B. PUT THE VERBS IN BRACKETS IN THE CORRECT TENSE.

1. Yassine: Hi, Hamza. Any news about Othmane? I haven't seen (not see) him for weeks!
2. At the moment, a foreign NGO is preparing (prepare) a huge project for human development in rural areas of the Atlas Mountains.
3. Our club has been organising / has organised (organise) free reading workshops for children in our neighbourhood since 2022.
4. Agriculture is (be) a key sector of the Moroccan economy. Farmers in the Souss region have been using / have used (use) drip irrigation for many years to save water.
5. Our town council has been (be) interested in building a new sports centre for many years.
6. A new bridge is being built over the river this month; the workers will finish it in June. is building / was building / is being built
7. Our class is preparing a short film about recycling. So far, we have written (write) the script.

C. GIVE THE RIGHT FORM TO THE VERBS BETWEEN BRACKETS:

1. After she had completed (complete) a course in Spanish, Salma joined Abdelmalek Essaadi University.
2. She drove (drive) to work an hour ago.
3. They spent (spend) the whole day on the beach yesterday.
4. Sanaa went to bed after she had revised (revise) her lessons.
5. Reda began (begin) learning the guitar two years ago.
6. I couldn't (cannot) find my keys when I left the house this morning.
7. Nadia: Have you ever been to Chefchaouen?
   Leila: No, never. I went (go) to Tetouan last spring.
8. Abdellah had taught / had been teaching (teach) in a village school for twelve years before he opened (open) his own private school in 2021.
9. Last summer, more than two million Moroccans living abroad returned (return) home for the holidays.
10. Sami: Have you heard from Nada? Did she arrive (she / arrive) in time for the exam yesterday?
    Ali: Unfortunately not. When she reached (reach) the school, the exam had already begun (already / begin).
11. Mr Berrada moved (move) to Oujda in 2005. He ran (run) a small bookshop there for almost fifteen years.
12. Hi Karima, I'm in Dakhla now. I arrived (arrive) here two days ago after I had spent (spend) a week in Laayoune.

13. My grandparents had built (build) this house before my father was born.
14. In a radio interview, the head of Nour Association said: "Two years ago, we launched (launch) a campaign to collect books for rural schools."
15. Last night, Taha and his cousin went (go) to the stadium, but when they got there, they found that the match had already begun (already / begin). So, they watched it in a café nearby.
16. After Hajar had received / received (receive) her scholarship last year, she travelled / traveled (travel) to Canada to study medicine.
17. Wiam: Were you still at primary school when you learnt / learned (learn) to swim?
    Kenza: No, I had taken (take) swimming lessons two years before that.
    Wiam: Did you like your teacher?
    Kenza: Not really. I wish I had had (have) a kinder teacher.
18. After Mr Chraibi had sold / sold (sell) his shop, he travelled around Morocco.
19. Strong winds destroyed (destroy) several greenhouses near Agadir last winter.
20. I wish I hadn't forgotten (not / forget) my sister's birthday; she was really upset.
21. "Our cat disappeared (disappear) two days ago," the little girl said.
22. When he had finished (finish) his studies in Europe, Hamid returned to Morocco.
23. Latifa Amrani had finished (finish) her law degree before she joined the court. In 2015, she wrote (write) a report on women's rights.
24. While I was walking home last night, I saw (see) a car hit a lamp post.
25. Yesterday afternoon, while the students were playing football, it suddenly started (start) to rain heavily.
26. Ilham didn't know (not / know) what to cook for her guests. Last night, she got (get) a nice surprise. When she went into the kitchen, her husband had already prepared (already / prepare) dinner.

D. PUT THE VERBS BETWEEN BRACKETS IN THE CORRECT TENSE.

1. By next September, my uncle will have worked / will have been working (work) in this factory for twenty years.
2. This year, about 1.5 million people visited the new museum. Another 2 million will probably visit (probably / visit) it next year. The managers hope that by 2030 the number of visitors will have doubled (double).
3. The mayor says that by the end of next year, the town council will have repaired (repair) all the roads in our area.
4. By 2035, the country will have built (build) enough dams to face drought.
5. By the end of the month, the workers will have painted (paint) the whole school.
6. By the end of this summer, my brother will have published (publish) his first novel.
7. I will send (send) you a message as soon as the results come out.
8. By the end of July, most families will have booked (book) their summer holidays.
9. Our school has chosen Salim for its debate team. The headmaster is taking / is going to take / will take (take) him to a national competition in Rabat next week.
10. Her brother will visit (visit) us next month if he gets some days off.
11. I believe that, by 2030, our team will have won (win) the national cup.
12. I think, by the end of this month, he will have started (start) his new course in business management.

E. GIVE THE CORRECT FORM OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS.

1. While I was coming (come) to school this morning, I met (meet) my uncle.
2. As soon as we had finished (finish) our essays yesterday, we gave (give) them to the teacher.
3. "Oh, look! It is raining (rain) again."
4. I've lost my pen. I wish I could (can) remember where I put it.
5. It's my birthday next week. I will be (be) eighteen.